

Message: I shall see the reward of the wicked

Texts: Psalm 91 verse 8

Bible Passage: Esther 7 verses 1- end

SO the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen. 2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom. 3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request: 4 For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage. 5 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so? 6 And Esther said, The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. 7 ¶ And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. 8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. 9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon. 10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

In Psalm 91 verse 8, the Bible says only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. The lesson to learn from this verse is that there is a reward for the wicked that you will only witness with your eyes, Mordecai and Esther witnessed the reward of Haman, I'm praying unto the Lord to bring down your enemies into the pit they have dug for you in the name of Jesus .

To see the reward of the wicked is to see:-

- God disgracing them openly
- The plans of the enemies failed before their very eyes
- Your enemies falling into the pit they have dug for you
- Your enemies been wasted right before your eyes
- Your enemies suffering demotion openly
- Your enemies been paid for their evil deeds
- Your enemies been cut short from the land of the living
- Your enemies losing glory and honour

I'm praying unto the Lord God Almighty to strip your enemies of their glory and clothed them with open shame and disgrace. In Esther Chapter 7, we saw how the Lord made Mordecai to see reward of Haman who had made a gallow to end his life, I'm praying unto God Almighty that may your enemies end their lives in their own evil nets in the name of Jesus also as Mordecai witnessed the end of Haman, from now all those who are your wicked enemies shall die before your very eyes in the name of Jesus.

Beloved what a wonderful God we serve, who has the power to make the enemies to die in our place, but for the Lord to bring his promise to pass, he expects us to repent of our sins, follow him, and walk in his ways, and as you do that may all your enemies from the day you were born till now perish before your eyes in the name of Jesus
