

Message: Lessons from the death and his resurrection

Texts: John 12 verse 24 and verse 32

Bible Passage: John 19 verse 17- 30 and John 20 verse 1- 18

Today we shall be looking at the lessons from the death and his resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ In 1 Corinthians 1 verse 18, the Bible says for the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness but unto us which are saved it is the power of God, meaning the acceptance of the facts that Jesus came to world and was sent to the cross and on the third day rose again to the believers is the power of God but to those who are doomed for condemnation is foolishness and makes no sense

The death and resurrection of Jesus gave hope to all that after death there will be life

On the cross he was mocked

They spat at him

They insulted him

They shared his garment

They slapped him

Even the thief on the cross joined in insulting him

But on the same cross while people were doing those things physically, Jesus was busy in the spiritual dealing with powers and principalities as seen Colossians 2 verse 15, "and having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly triumphing over them in it.....

- . I decree that the death of Jesus bring sudden disgrace upon your enemies in the name of Jesus
- I'm praying again that the Lord will put your adversaries to open shame in the name of Jesus

Lessons 1 :As Jesus was sent to the cross for doing nothing so also innocent lives can be sent to face the judgement of the enemies' even death. Examples of things that can be sent to the cross are :-

- Man's dreams
- Talent
- Laughter
- Head (Body parts)
- Jobs
- Career
- Business
- Children, husband, wife and even the marriage
- Relationships
- Community
- Nation
- The Church

Lesson 2: After the cross comes the grave, the grave is a place where the enemies put what they have killed on the cross. The grave is a place of:-

- Sudden stoppage
- No motion
- Its finished
- Decay
- Forgotten place
- Darkness
- Where worms live
- Smell and odour

- Gross darkness

The enemies thought it was over, they brought down the body of Jesus and was buried, but there was war in the invisible rhyme and Jesus war against the spirit of death and on the third day He rose and became a transformed / spiritual being that death could not hold

I don't know what the enemies have killed and are saying it all over; the power that brought Jesus out of the grave shall deliver thee in the name of Jesus

- The grave yard clothing's upon your destiny I cause them to be wasted by fire in the name of Jesus
- Evil stone placed to stop you from rising, angel of the living God roll them away in the name of Jesus

Lesson 3

Altar call.....For a life to enjoy the resurrection power of Jesus, you must accept Jesus and not denial him as Lord and personal saviour. Below are some of the ways where we have or are denying Jesus (Matthew 10 verse 33- 41 and Luke 22 verse 54 - 62

- Be ashamed to confess Jesus as Lord and Personal saviour openly
- Not studying of the scripture
- Not associating with the company of believers
- Not doing the will of God
- Not praying in the name of Jesus
- Disobeying God's words
- Still offering sacrifices to idols
- Not accepting him as the only way to heaven
- Partially trusting and obeying him
- Questioning the authenticity of the Bible
