

Message: Rejoice not against me O mine enemy

Text: Micah 7 verse 8

Bible Passage: Job 42 verse 10- end

Troubles and storms of life may come upon a man, man born of a woman is no exception to problems but when problems comes, often times it's not a sign of weakness or sin, it sometimes a way by which God exposes the enemies that are called friends or God showing you that some are waiting to mock you or rejoice at your calamity.

Job was a man of great wealth but when calamity struck, his supposed friend who were supposed to comfort him turned around to rejoice at his calamity, but hear what the scripture says in Micah 7 verse 8 that Rejoice not against me O my enemy, when I fall I shall rise when I sit in darkness the Lord shall be a light unto me.

I'm praying unto God that all those rejoicing at your fall shall receive double disgrace in the name of Jesus. I'm praying again that the Lord that restores Job back in double shall restore your lost fortune back in many folds in the name of Jesus.

The Enemy will rejoice when you

- Fall
- Lose money
- Properties
- Lose recognition
- Fame
- Lose your job
- Turn to a beggar
- Below your friends
- Have no more testimonies

Beloved, when you fall and refused to rise, the enemies will mock you forever but when you rise again, they shall be put to shame, for them to suffer shame and you receiving double restoration you must be on the side of God, hold fast unto God for his promise, don't follow other gods or take counsel from them, lastly pray for God's intervention
