Prayers

1. Father Lord reveal to me my calling in Jesus name

In the Bible passage that we read, we saw something that people refers to as the five hold ministries, namely The Apostolic , Prophetic, Evangelical, Pastoral, Teaching. The Church can be likened to a teaching hospital where different aspects of medicine are being taught and also generally all those that graduated from the medical school (I mean those who studied medicines are called Doctors) Likewise all those who are called into the service of God in our present age are called Pastors , but in the actual sense. Before a gathering could be called a church they must have the 5 hold ministries present, likewise before a teaching hospital could be called a teaching hospital it must have facilities to train people in different fields.

Here now is the problem, in our age, we are seeing someone with the gifts of teaching who has not received the gifts of the prophets automatically assume the office of a prophet, this could be likened to a General practitioner assuming the role of a consultant surgeon. Which ministries has God called you to be?

A Ministry in Africa known to the teaching of the Word of God all of a sudden went to conduct deliverance sadly on their way back, it was gathered that they had a ghastly motor accident; they have encroached on a field that was practically not their area of specialty. To be active in other specialty you must be well trained and certified and maintain the rules of the game if you were to be effective.
