

Message: Connecting with the glory of the third day

Texts: Micah 7 verse 8

Bible Passage: Luke 24 verse 1- 12

In Micah 7 verse 8, the Bible says rejoice not over me my enemies, this was a great warning to all those waiting to laugh at your situation,

It was a strong word of encouragement that there is hope as long as you live,

It was a strong declaration that you are not destined to remain in one spot

It was a strong prophesy that you will rise again

It was a declaration that your enemies cannot hold you down forever

Jesus was killed and buried according to the scripture and on the third day he rose again, on the third day there was: (The enemies thought it was over but on the third day some sympathisers came to dress the body of Jesus ..... I don't know what the enemies had killed and are rejoicing that it is over, it is not over yet, and the glory of the third day shall disappoint your enemies .This will lead us to our message for today which is connecting with the glory of the third day. Hear this on the first day, he was killed, humiliated, insulted etc. on the second day the enemies thought it was over and were rejoicing and dancing but on the third day, the story changed.....

The third day was the day

- Jesus rose again
- Conquered death and hell
- Triumphed over principalities and power
- The day that he had victory over all situations
- He picked up a name that is above every other names
- The day that the captives were set free
- Joy in heaven and sadness to the enemies of light
- People came to pity Jesus but met surprise
- Stone was rolled away
- They could not find his body
- Angels announced his resurrection
- Separation of the living from the dead
- He is not here
- Release from the grave
- Overcame death
- Enemies put to shame
- Sicknesses conquered

What then is the glory of the third day?

- Glory that announced Jesus as Lord and saviour of the world
- Jesus have power over all things
- Declare and launch the spread of his name
- Sent his enemies into confusion
- That Death could not hold him down

What do we understand by Connecting with the glory of the third day?

- Be a part of the glory
- Be associated with it
- Possess it
- Take it
- Share the glory

What must we do to connect with this glory?

- Accept Jesus as your Lord and personal saviour
- Believe that he died and rose on the third day
- Be associated with his testimonies
- Walk with him
- Share in his blood and flesh
- Pray in the name of Jesus (Ask for the glory)
