

Message: Praying against the will of the enemies

Bible Texts: Psalms 27 verse 12

Bible Reading: Daniel 6 verses 1- end

In Psalms 27 verse 12, the Bible says “ deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies; for false witnesses are risen up against me and such as breathe out cruelty” In the text, the Bible made mentioned of the will of the enemies and that God should not deliver us unto such will, if the will of the enemies are good, the Psalmist supposed to have begged God to deliver him to the will of his enemies, meaning the will of the enemies are bad for anyone under the sun.

The word “will” means:-

- Desire
- Expectations
- Agenda
- Plans
- Outcome
- Wish
- Forecast

The enemies may desire that one should be:-

- In constant pain
- Suffering from unexplainable sicknesses
- Under constant emotional and mental oppression
- Losing money
- Under terrible night mares
- In one spot of life without any progress
- Demoted from high position
- Locked up in the prison of life
- Hated by helpers
- Isolated in life
- Under spell and bewitchment
- Disgraced in position of authority
- Smelling before helpers
- Under constant witchcraft attack
- Forgotten in the land of the living
- Having profitless hard labour
- Having repeated problems
- Having incurable diseases
- In trouble always
- Suffering from wrong identity syndrome
- In the grave early (die untimely)

It's an invitation to early grave to believe that you are free from the enemies, Daniel in Daniel 6 verses 1- end, the Bible qualified Daniel as a man with excellent spirit and highly honoured in the land, but sadly, some people within the land hated him so much that they desired that he should die.

I want you to wake up from your slumber and the common lies you are telling yourself that you don't have enemies because you are going gently on your way, you have forgotten that your existence alone is an invitation to battle

- Your way of life
- Your service and worship to God
- Your career
- Your gentleness / humility
- Your dressing
- Even your personality could draw others towards you to hate you,

If the way of Daniel drew the enemies towards him, you are not an exception.

Daniel overcame the evil plans, will and desire of his enemies by:-

- Not stopping praying, He was not complaining about the will and the consequences
- Been bold and courageous
- Been focussed and not distracted
- Remaining with God alone and not seeking for the help of man

After which all his enemies were fed to the lions as they desired for Daniel. For the Lord to fight against the desire of your enemies, you must surrender your life to Christ, accept him as your Lord and personal saviour, ask him to write your name in the book of life and obey his words always
