

Message: Will thou be made whole

Text: John 5 verse 6

Bible Passage: John 5 verses 1- 10

A man may be sick, afflicted, caged or be in total darkness for part or most of his life. Depending on where you turn will determine how long the enemies keep you in their custody. In John 5 verses 1-10, saw the account of a man that was sitting at the pool for 38 years and he was on the lookout for help from man to help him inside the water when the angel stirred the water, but unfortunately, all he could get were disappointment. Any attempt to looking for help from man will always end in disappointment and tragedy. I want you to cry unto God like this

- My Father take my focus away from the help of man in the name of Jesus
- Oh Lord arise and deliver me from infirmities of many years in the name of Jesus
- Powers pressing me down from reaching my goals release me and die in the name of Jesus

We are looking at what is titled, Will thou be made whole? This was the question Jesus asked the man, but unfortunately, the man began explaining to Jesus, circumstances surrounding him from getting help, how people used to trample upon him, how no one was willing to help him and how he was helpless. Jesus was not interested in his explanation, but in him getting well. To be made whole means:-

- Do you want to be healed
- Do you want to be set free
- Released from the cage of the enemies
- Recover all the wasted years
- Happy again
- Disgrace the disgrace
- Disgrace the accusers
- Disgrace those trampling upon you
- Shame your enemies
- Overcome darkness and see light
- Rise and walk
- Laugh and rejoice just like others

A man may be made whole from sickness, marital problems, mental illness, relationship stress, financial turbulence, physical and spiritual attack, heaviness of the heart, nightmare, storms of life, there is nothing the Lord cannot do.

Hear this beloved when a life is sick or under attack, there will be

- Heaviness
- Stagnancy
- Pains
- Become a beggar
- A stepping stone for others
- A laughing stock
- Seen as a failure and not serious

- Be in Poverty

What must we do?

All other means of healing are temporal, only Jesus can heal and set free permanently, what no man could give the man, Jesus gave. Do you want the master life changer, the solution giver, the Almighty God to attend to your case or you want to still be looking unto man for help?

Prayer
