

Message: Chasing the strangers out of the home

Text : Psalms 18 verse 43- 45

Bible Passage: Genesis 21 verses 8- 21

In Psalms 18 verses 43 -45, the bible says thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people and thou hast made me the head of the hearthen; a people whom I have not known shall serve me as soon as they hear of me they shall obey me the strangers shall submit themselves unto me, the strangers shall fade away and be afraid out of their close places.

Lessons to learn from the above scripture are:

1. There are entities called strangers
2. They have a hiding place
3. They will only come out when they hear your voice
4. If your voice is not strong or powerful enough the strangers might remain in the house

Who are these strangers?

1. Uninvited enemies, guests or intruder, they can be inform of :-
 1. Sickness
 2. Storms of life
 3. Infirmities
 4. Problems of diverse kinds
 5. Attack of the enemies
 6. Evil loads
 7. Rage of darkness
 8. Demons in a life

What can make strangers to enter into a home? In Matthew 12 verse 43- 45, the bible says when an unclean spirit is gone out of a man he walketh through dry places, seeking rest and findeth none, then he saith I will return into my house from whence I came out and when he is come he findeth it empty, swept and garnished, then goes he and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself and they enter in and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first, even so shall it be also unto the wicked generation.
