

Message: Renewing your strength in the lord

Isaiah 40:31 KJV But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

Psalms 125:1 KJV They that trust in the Lord shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

Hebrews 4:12 KJV For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

When your strength is renewed you will

- Climb mountains with ease
- Fly high and break through storms as the eagles
- Out run your enemies and not weary
- Stop evil advancement
- Pull down and kill our Goliath
- Dream more and see more vision
- Your dream and spiritual life will be too dangerous to handle by the kingdom of God
- Have more spiritual understanding
- Know the way to follow and will not fall into errors
- Tread upon giants, serpents, scorpions and over all the power of your enemies and nothing shall hurt you
- Be operating on a higher spiritual ground
- You will have uncommon victory, celebration, progress and acceleration
- God will use you more and give you more assignment
- The words that will be coming out of your mouth will carry power, fire and authority
- Pursue, overtake and recover all that the evil ones stole from your life
- Your faith will increase and you will encourage yourself more in the lord as seen in the scripture below

1 Samuel 30:1-8,17-19 KJV And it came to pass, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire; [2] And had taken the women captives, that were therein: they slew not any, either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way. [3] So David and his men came to the city, and, behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives. [4] Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep. [5] And David's two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. [6] And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David encouraged himself in the Lord his God. [7] And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod. And Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David. [8] And David enquired at the Lord, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail recover all. [17] And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels, and fled. [18] And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives. [19] And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all.
