Genesis 32:24-26 KJV And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day. [25] And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him. [26] And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

Jacob had the opportunity and divine encounter with the almighty, he was not afraid rather he was determined not to let go until the Lord blesses him and he was not disappointed. As we wrestle with God this morning in prayer, songs and thanksgiving, may our case become a different one in the name of Jesus.
