

Message: The Parable of the persistent widow

Text: Hebrew 12 verse 2

Bible Passage: Luke 18 verses. 1- 8 and Matthew 25 verses 1- 13

The Lord is looking for believers who are not moved by what they see, who are determined to wait on the Lord and those who are focussed, this will lead us to our teaching which is titled the parable of the persistent widow. In Luke 18 verses 1- 8, Jesus told his disciples a parable about having faith, been persistent and he concluded saying when the son of man shall come will he find faith on earth. In the parable Jesus was the judge while the persistent widow was a believer. Jesus knew the heart of men from the beginning and encouraged them using the parable.

There are some lessons the Lord is teaching the present day believers about this parable which are

- We should believe only in him as the sure solution giver
- We should be persistent with our desire and request whenever we come unto him in prayer
- We should never be discouraged or distracted
- We ought to understand the power of effective prayer

Jesus is looking for believers to take with him on his second coming who:-

- Can pray without ceasing
- Can demonstrate their faith in the presence of opposition
- Those who have refused to look elsewhere for help but only on Jesus
- True worshippers, those who have determined to serve God come rain or sunshine
- The true or the wise virgins those who are ready for the coming of the bridegroom, not those who are just coming to church without mission, vision or goal but those who have oil in their lamp and who are prepared and ready for the coming of the bridegroom.

In the case of the widow her oil was her faith, can Jesus count on you as a faithful servant who will demonstrate that Jesus will surely answer and Jesus will surely come back.

The present gathering called a church is suffering because believers have no understanding:

- Of who Jesus is
- Or not sure if Jesus can and will answer their prayers
- If Jesus is actually coming back for the saint
- Of what is a church, they believe that a church is just a place to go whenever they have problems and when the problems are not solved at their own time, they change god and go elsewhere, it explains why we have many who are giving testimonies which was not given by God in the house of God, Some have gone to the waters, village shrines some as far to sleeping in the graveyard to collect power and in turn coming to church to say the Lord has done it.

What must we do?

- Have genuine salvation
- Learn more about Jesus, daily read and study the Bible
- Walk with Jesus daily in prayers, hymns and Psalms
- Pray always without ceasing

Prayer

1. Father Lord I thank you for you alone has the power to give and increase faith, accept my thanks as your chosen one in the name of Jesus
