Hymn: Abide with me

Memory verse: Psalm 18:32-34 KJV It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect. [33] He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places. [34] He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

Bible reading: Revelation 12:7-11 KJV And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, [8] And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. [9] And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. [10] And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. [11] And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

Running to others for help in fighting spiritual battles is ok but when your helper or helpers are gone, the enemies will mess up the life but the everlasting way of securing permanent victory is to call on the help of the helpless Jesus christ the son of the living God to fight your battles. Jesus lives forever as the bible made it clear to us in Hebrews 13:8 KJV

Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever and by him all things are made as seen in Colossians 1:13-16 KJV Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: [14] In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: [15] Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: [16] For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: and conquered all on the cross as seen in Colossians 2:14-15 KJV Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; [15] And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

War will (Psalm 27:3 KJV Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.)

- Draw you nearer to God
- It will build your faith and confidence in the lord
- It will eliminate your fear
- Make you know your true friends

All the above are for those who are victorious, those who never give up, those who are determined to defeat the enemies, those who are bold and courageous and those who are not afraid of the spear, sword and the shield of the enemies

No battle no victory means:-

- You can not be called or declared a winner without fighting
- You cannot conquer territories without declaring war
- You cannot be delivered from captivity and bondage without spiritual confrontation
- You cannot have result without examination

As a matter of fact, whether you like it or not, you will have to fight at one stage of your life? The question is how prepared are you for war?

Strangely in this generation, believers are looking unto men for help and support rather than unto God, they want victory but not willing to fight.....

Cry loud to God in heaven

1. My father train my hands for war in the name of Jesus
2. Jesus Christ the man of war appear and fight the enemies that are too strong for me in the name of Jesus
3. In the name of Jesus I'm victorious over ancient and inherited battles in the name of Jesus
4. In the name of Jesus I break loose from ancestral cage and captivity in the name of Jesus
5. O God arise and deliver me from the hands of the mighty and terrible enemies in the name of Jesus
