Psalm 41:1-13 KJV Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble. [2] The Lord will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies. [3] The Lord will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness. [4] I said, Lord, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee. [5] Mine enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish? [6] And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it. [7] All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise my hurt. [8] An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth he shall rise up no more. [9] Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me. [10] But thou, O Lord, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them. [11] By this I know that thou favourest me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me. [12] And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever. [13] Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.

Are you here today and surrounded by people you are not sure who they are? Or are you here today and you are surrounded by masquerading friends, enemies or in the mist of the wicked You are wishing you evil? Fear not and put your hope and trust in God and through his words he will expose and disappoint the expectations of the wicked against your life and home in the name of Jesus. Beloved, God is still in the business of saving his own children, please remain in Christ and Christ in you and you will have everlasting victory over darkness in Jesus name...
