Hymn: Abide with me

Ecclesiastes 9:12 KJV For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

- Traps set to capture and waste my life fail and catch your owners in the name of Jesus.
- Agenda of the wasters over my life be disappointed and be wasted in the name of Jesus.
- O God arise and waste the wasters in the name of Jesus.
- Those serving strange gods and are now after my soul shall die in the order of Goliath in the name of Jesus.
- O lord God Almighty deliver and rescue me from evil net and evil times in the name of Jesus.
- Powers planning to bring evil upon me be wasted suddenly and die in the name of Jesus
- O lord God Almighty deliver me from the bondage of wasters and oppressors in the name of Jesus
- Weapons in the hands of the worshippers of strange gods fashioned against me fail and kill your owners in the name of Jesus.
- O God my father rescue me from mouth of the dogs and lions in the name of Jesus.
- Inherited evil, bad luck, poverty, rejection from my mother's womb hear the word of the Lord expire, come out of my life and die in the name of Jesus.

Acts 23:12-29 KJV And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. [13] And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy. [14] And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul. [15] Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him. [16] And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul. [17] Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him. [18] So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee. [19] Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me? [20] And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly. [21] But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee. [22] So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me. [23] And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night; [24] And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor. [25] And he wrote a letter after this manner: [26] Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting. [27] This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman. [28] And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council: [29] Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

It was the presence and the fullness of God around Paul that rescued him from the plot of the wasters. Forty deadly and dangerous people bound themselves under strong oath that they will neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul but their plan was exported and disappointed. I'm praying in the name of Jesus that

- all secret plans to waste you shall be exposed and wasted in the name of Jesus.
- The lord will cover all those planning to waste you with everlasting shame and disgrace in the name of Jesus.
- The great and mighty God will rescue you from the rage of the wasters in the name of Jesus.
