Psalm 27:1-14 KJV The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? [2] When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell. [3] Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident. [4] One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in his temple. [5] For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock. [6] And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord. [7] Hear, O Lord, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me. [8] When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek. [9] Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation. [10] When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up. [11] Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies. [12] Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty. [13] I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. [14] Wait on the Lord : be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.

Dear beloved the bible made it clear in verses 5 and 6 of Psalm 27 that For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock. [6] And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

The head that must be lifted up must first be set upon the rock, it is the rock that will serve as the extra edge for the head to be lifted up. The rock is Jesus Christ, and whosoever is in Christ shall be lifted up.

To be lifted up is to

- Excel above your enemies
- To have excellent spirit
- To be favoured above others
- To be celebrated in the midst of the multitude
- To succeed when others are having average
- To do great and mighty exploit than others
- To have hedge above others
- To be chosen and preferred above others
- To be crowned
- To be lifted up..... as said earlier it is only Christ that can lift up your head, are you here this hour and you've not accepted Jesus Christ as your Lord and personal saviour, do so quickly so that you can be included in the list of those whose heads shall be lifted up....

Hear this beloved, evil hands, curses, evil loads, the wicked and dark powers can press down a head from being lifted up, that is why we need Jesus to lift up our heads far above our enemies (poverty, delay, rejection, failure, strange men and women etc).....
