Hymn: I've found a friend in Jesus

Psalm 140:1-13 KJV Deliver me, O Lord, from the evil man: preserve me from the violent man; [2] Which imagine mischiefs in their heart; continually are they gathered together for war. [3] They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips. Selah. [4] Keep me, O Lord, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings. [5] The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set gins for me. Selah. [6] I said unto the Lord, Thou art my God: hear the voice of my supplications, O Lord. [7] O God the Lord, the strength of my salvation, thou hast covered my head in the day of battle. [8] Grant not, O Lord, the desires of the wicked: further not his wicked device; lest they exalt themselves. Selah. [9] As for the head of those that compass me about, let the mischief of their own lips cover them. [10] Let burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again. [11] Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him. [12] I know that the Lord will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor. [13] Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

Let us analyse the scripture verse by verse so that we understand what the evil and wicked are capable of doing and the reason why we must not joke with this Psalm. The word evil is profoundly immoral and wicked while violent is using or involving physical force intended to hurt, damage, or kill someone or something. So, we are dealing with those doing wrong things against us and with the intentions to kill and destroy us that is why you must pray today

Psalm 140:1-13 KJV Deliver me, O Lord, from the evil man: preserve me from the violent man;

[2] Which imagine mischiefs in their heart; continually are they gathered together for war.

[3] They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips. Selah.

[4] Keep me, O Lord, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings.

[5] The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set gins for me. Selah.

[6] I said unto the Lord, Thou art my God: hear the voice of my supplications, O Lord.

[7] O God the Lord, the strength of my salvation, thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

[8] Grant not, O Lord, the desires of the wicked: further not his wicked device; lest they exalt themselves. Selah.

[9] As for the head of those that compass me about, let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

[10] Let burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again.

[11] Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

[12] I know that the Lord will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor.[13] Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence. O Lord my father judge the wicked and the evil men that are rising up against me and let them fall into their pit and destructions and rise no more in the name of Jesus.
